

Meeting of the Fulton County Commissioners – Tuesday, September 27, 2022
8:30 a.m. at the Commissioners' Office

Present: Commissioner Ulsh, Commissioner Bunch & Commissioner Shives

Absent: None

Others Present: Sandra Barton-Fulton County Resident, Jamie Greathead-The Fulton County News

Commissioner Ulsh opened the meeting with silent prayer and all recited the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag.

Commissioner Ulsh opened up the floor for public comments. Jamie Greathead, The Fulton County News, asked several questions about the lawsuit between the county and Dominion Voting Systems. Commissioner Ulsh advised Greathead that documents would soon be on the county website pertaining to the lawsuit and commented that any questions should be directed to the Commissioners' Special Counsel. Commissioner Shives asked who allowed someone to gain access to the locked room, with surveillance cameras, where the Dominion Voting Equipment is being stored and who was present when it was accessed and images were created in July 2022. Commissioner Ulsh responded that Commissioner Shives will need to email Special Counsel for that information but it may be considered privileged. Sandra Barton asked questions to the Commissioners about their political parties and how it relates to the Fulton County residents. Barton also expressed concern about the dropbox for ballots being changed to being available only on election day. Commissioner Ulsh explained that the decision was made due to the surveillance required for the dropbox and the burden it made to the county to review the footage and mentioned that ballots can be dropped off inside the building during business hours.
