Commissioners met with McConnellsburg Fire Chief Pete Lynch and EMA/911 Director Brian Barton to sign a Proclamation naming the McConnellsburg Volunteer Fire Company as an Official EMS Training Institute. The Fire Department received a Certificate of Accreditation, Accreditation Number 0068118525, from the Pennsylvania Department of Health Pursuant to the Emergency Medical Services System Act, Act of August 18, 2009, P.L. 308, No. 37, as amended, and as set forth in the rules and regulations. The certificate was issued March 28, 2023 and expires March 31, 2026. Barton holds an Instructor Certification and will be the instructor for the Institute. Barton stated that so far 14 individuals signed up for training.

Motion by Commissioner Ulsh proclaiming that the McConnellsburg Volunteer Fire Company as an Official EMS Training Institute to conduct educational programs for prehospital personnel in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. All in favor.

Commissioners met with Julie Dovey, Executive Development Director for Fulton County Partnership. Dovey presented Resolution 3 of 2023 for execution supporting increased funding for mental health services from the FY 2023-24 state budget. Dovey also asked for approval to send out letters to Representative Jesse Topper and Senator Judy Ward in support of increased funding for Fulton County.

Motion by Commissioner Shives to approve Resolution 3 of 2023 supporting increased funding for community-based mental health services in the FY 2023-24 state budget and also to authorize Dovey to write and present a letter to Representative Jesse Topper and Senator Judy Ward. All in favor.

Commissioners discussed safety measures in the Tax Assessment Office and asked that phone calls go out to individuals with specific information of when the department is doing fieldwork on their property to promote awareness in the community and safety for employees. A suggestion was made by Steven Wible to have the department wear fluorescent vests when doing fieldwork.

Motion by Commissioner Ulsh to adjourn at 10:23 a.m. All in favor.
